

Dear FCC,

Please don't change the FCC rules on net neutrality, keep the ISP providers under title 2 oversight as under the Obama administration. The internet should be treated as a public utility, it has become a necessary part of everyday commerce and communication. The cable companies have proved to be only interested in squeezing profits, not in customer service.